

Apostrophe Quiz

Add apostrophes where needed in the following.

1. In Roberts opinion, some of the best rock albums of the 70s were made by Van Morrison, Neil Young, and Joni Mitchell.
2. Chris and Nancys house is nicer than theirs or ours.
3. Shes dismayed by her husbands sudden interest in the weird, ghostly tales of M.R. James and Sheridan Le Fanu.
4. Both writers tales focus more on characters fears than on physical monsters.
5. He cant seem to understand that one persons opinion may be just as valid as anothers.
6. Isnt it the news medias responsibility to be unbiased?
7. Some of William Faulkners novels of the 30s--As I Lay Dying, Sanctuary, Light in August, and Absalom, Absalom!--are many critics choices for the best of the 20th century.
8. Though its been disparaged somewhat over the years, Anne Sextons poetry is slowly finding its place in the American canon.
9. William Shakespeares and Samuel Becketts notions of the worlds absurdity are similar.
10. Its no surprise that the dog chased its own tail.

1. In Robert's opinion, some of the best rock albums of the '70s were made by Van Morrison, Neil Young, and Joni Mitchell.
2. Chris and Nancy's house is nicer than theirs or ours.
3. She's dismayed by her husband's sudden interest in the weird, ghostly tales of M.R. James and Sheridan Le Fanu.
4. Both writers' tales focus more on characters' fears than on physical monsters.
5. He can't seem to understand that one person's opinion may be just as valid as another's.
6. Isn't it the news media's responsibility to be unbiased?
7. Some of William Faulkner's novels of the '30s--As I Lay Dying, Sanctuary, Light in August, and Absalom, Absalom!--are many critics' choices for the best of the 20th century.
8. Though it's been disparaged somewhat over the years, Anne Sexton's poetry is slowly finding its place in the American canon.
9. William Shakespeare's and Samuel Beckett's notions of the world's absurdity are similar.
10. It's no surprise that the dog chased its own tail.